Dear <Salutation> <Last Name>:

Last year you saved a life.

You helped a struggling mom in an abusive relationship get a protective order and now she and her children are safe. You removed the cloud of fear and despair and replaced it with hope. Such was the power of your $<Amount> Access to Justice Contribution.

This year, you might make it possible for a wounded veteran to sleep in a bed under a proper roof. Or perhaps, you'll help an elderly man find out that yes, he can pass the family home to his daughter without worrying that she can't afford probate.

It's hard to imagine that such simple, basic needs are out of reach for so many. But the generosity of your good soul has the power to change all that for another good soul, whose only crime is to be poor and in need of a lawyer.

The holidays magnify everything, from joy to desperation.

Please contribute to the joy.

A donation of $<Amount> goes a long way, more goes even farther, and a Champion of Justice Society membership goes on for almost ever!

- $150 can help a special needs child get the education she deserves
- $250 can protect an elderly woman from a consumer scam
- $500 can preserve housing for a person living with disabilities
- $1,000 can cover an entire legal aid case for a family
- $5,000 can give life-saving assistance to victims of domestic abuse

For all you have done, for all you will do—

Thank you,

Trish McAllister
Executive Director
